Congo: Rebel activities are increasing again in the eastern Congo.

Well-armed insurgents have occupied Beni, about 200 miles north of Bukavu, and are moving south. This rebel group may be joined by another now approaching Goma from the west.

According to air reconnaissance reports, the rebel concentration west of Bukavu continues to grow. A new attack on the city has been expected for the past week. Some 1,500 Congolese troops, supported by aircraft which so far have kept the rebels off balance, are available to defend Bukavu.

Kenyan Minister of State Murumbi, head of the special delegation appointed by the OAU Congo conciliation commission to press the US to withdraw its military support of Tshombé, arrived in Washington yesterday. He has come, however, as Kenyan Prime Minister Kenyatta's "personal representative." Reports from a number of African capitals indicate a widespread feeling that the commission has over-reached itself.

India-Pakistan: [Firing incidents along the India-Pakistan cease-fire line in Kashmir recently have become "virtually continuous,"]

[Although India's attitude does not seem substantially tougher than normal, tension along the line has risen in the past year, and a major incident could lead to a breakdown of the 15-year-old cease-fire agreement.]
